

Anytime Banking Stop Payment Disclosure

In requesting the stop payment of this check, the requestor agrees:

1. To notify Embassy Bank in writing to cancel this order if and when the reason for stop payment ceases to exist,
2. That closing of the account upon which this check is drawn shall automatically cancel this order,
3. That this order expires and is of no further effect six months from date of delivery to Embassy Bank unless earlier released or renewed by the individual requesting this order in writing.

It is understood that:

1. If a third person (including all branches of Embassy Bank) becomes a holder in due course of this check, the third person may be entitled to enforce payment against the drawer,
2. If Embassy Bank does not have a reasonable time to act on this stop payment before Embassy Bank has accepted the item, or before Embassy Bank has paid the item in cash, or before the item has been deposited or received for deposit for credit in an account of a customer with the payer bank, then Embassy Bank may be entitled to enforce payment of this item against the drawer,
3. Due to improper sorting or misrouting, Embassy Bank may have already accepted this check and the bank may be unable to determine this until two days after acceptance.
